

MELANIE EGAN: ENGAGING NEW AUDIENCES JESSICA SIMON: DOLLS OF CANADA'S NORTH

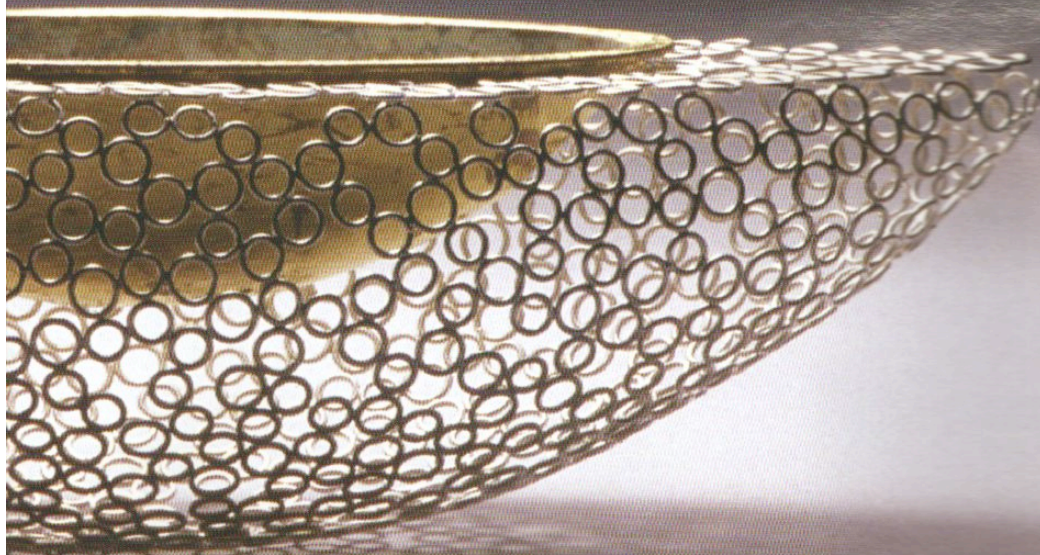

Studio

CRAFT AND DESIGN IN CANADA

Spring | Summer 2011

Craft Locally

making community
where you live

Saidye Bronfman Award Winner

Light.Space.Strength

Kye-Yeon Son

www.studiomagazine.ca
Display until September 2011

$8.95

Under the Radar

Spotting fresh work and talent

ALEX HENDERSON – Henderson Dry Goods

Alex Henderson is the Saskatchewan-born, Vancouver-based artist and industrial designer behind the exciting Henderson Dry Goods. Best known for her visually striking laser cut Wood Lace jewellery and Celebrated People in History necklace series, see her new Container Art installation recently exhibited in Milan.

www.hendersondrygoods.com

ABOVE: Alex Henderson. Emily Carr Pendant: Victorian Era Canadians Series, 2010. Laser etched gold-dyed walnut veneer, oxidized silver backing and chain. 16 cm chain, 3.5 cm pendant. Photo: Mike Noestheden.

ABOVE: Alex Henderson. Agnes Macphail Pendant: Victorian Era Canadians Series, 2010. Laser etched gold-dyed walnut veneer, oxidized silver backing and chain. (16 cm chain, 3.5 cm pendant). Photo: Mike Noestheden.

JODY RACICOT – Modern Revision

Following a successful 20 year acting career, PEI-based Jody Racicot is channeling his talent into designing and building furniture out of new and repurposed materials. Racicot's furniture, a mix of modern and vintage under the moniker Modern Revision, was recently featured in Studio North at the 2011 IDS in Toronto.

www.modernrevision.com

RIGHT: Jody Racicot. Modern Revision Writing Desk, 2010. Recycled plastic, aluminum, plywood, steel. 76 cm w x 50 cm l x 76 cm h. Photo: Stephen Desroches.